Letter of Recommendation for Bravo Research Group (BRG) / Byron Rodgers

This letter serves as a letter of recommendation for Bravo Research Group and its CEO, Byron Rodgers.

My name is Sergio Saporito. I am the Corporate Advisor / Director of Security for a large automotive group, Fletcher Jones Auto Group. We operate over 17 high end car dealerships across the nation with locations in California, Nevada and Illinois. We have a combined revenue of over 1.2 billion dollars annually. We currently hold the rankings of #1 and #5 with Mercedes Benz and #1 and #2 with Audi in dealer performance in the U.S., so the expectation of quality and professionalism from my security providers for my dealerships is a must.

Over the years, I have utilized the services of BRG numerous times with nothing but stellar success. I cannot express the level of service I receive every time that they are contracted. From planned events to emergency responses, they have never faulted and have always exceeded my expectations. BRG personnel arrives on time, properly attired and act as all security professionals should. We have never suffered an economic loss or had any type of misconduct while they are providing their protective services.

Depending on my contract needs, BRG guards and executive protection agents have provided a level of security to my dealerships, guests and our VIPs that is hard to come by. I endorse BRG for all our security needs and will continue to use them as I have for last 5 years.

Best Regards,

Sergio Saporito

Corporate Advisor, Fletcher Jones Management Group
